

Training Course: Healer of the New Consciousness

Find your unique path to bring your energetic and spiritual abilities into the world

Dear Healer to be:

These rapidly changing times need people who think and act outside the box. In this twelve-month training course "Healer of the New Consciousness", I help you reconnect with your unique energetic - spiritual skills. We develop your personal way of being a healer and train you to become the Healer of the New Consciousness that the world needs right now.

"Danai showed me what I've been missing all these years, and taught me how to welcome it back into my life."

What you will rediscover:

- △ Your very own personal way of working as a Healer of the New Consciousness (Your unique combination of energetic-spiritual skills, experiences on your healing journey and your kind of clients).
- △ Your potential, with which you can continue your journey of personal and healer's growth independently.
- △ Your connection to the spiritual world, which supports you and your work at every moment.

This training course is just right for you,

- △ if you feel called to be a healer but the How is missing.
- △ if something inside you tells you that the old way no longer works, but you haven't found a new one yet.
- △ if you want to travel your healer journey with an experienced healer by your side and to start practicing your skills in a group of like-minded people.
- △ if you want to live your full potential to the best of your knowledge and belief.
- △ if you work regularly on your personal growth and energetic - spiritually.
- △ if you want to feel connected again to something greater than yourself.

I have developed and practiced my Danai - work in my 30 years journey of personal growth and 25 years of energetic-spiritual work. Now I accompany and support you on your path to becoming the unique healer that is already inside you.

Training course content

The twelf-month training course is based on five pillars:

- △ Your energetic-spiritual skills: You will discover their unique diversity, harmonize them, and develop the courage to bring them into this world.
- △ Wounds to wonders: Your life journey contains the topics in which you can particularly well support your clients. You have already walked this path and know what supports and nourishes. This enables you to specifically facilitate and shorten their journey.
- △ Your motivation: Having a clear vision in mind will carry you through challenging times.
- △ Self-care: You cannot be a healer without taking good care of yourself. We will find what keeps you healthy, grounded, and centered.
- △ Ethics: I will teach you ways to work responsibly as a healer and for the benefit of all.

“Danai provides a profound theoretical and practical framework structure.”
